GREETINGS from the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky.

The Abbey of Gethsemani began in 1848 as an outpost in Nelson County, Kentucky for 44 French monks fleeing revolution. As Trappist monks, we support our cloistered community through the work of our hands. Days of prayer and meditation allow for a few precious hours to produce our critically acclaimed fruitcake and fudge.

Handmade since 1955 in small batches from only the freshest ingredients, every morsel reflects our devotion to the Trappist rule Ora et Labora (prayer and work). May our efforts become gifts of good taste for your family and friends!

Fr. Roger

BLESSINGS,
Brother Roger, Operations Manager

How our delicious fudge is made every day

Made from dairy-fresh butter and only the finest baking chocolate

English walnuts or pecans and genuine Kentucky Bourbon add heavenly flavor

Hand stirring in copper kettles creates that old-fashioned creamy texture

Quickly sealed, then hand-packed in our signature gift box

WHY USE KENTUCKY BOURBON?

The country's finest barrel-aged bourbon is crafted mere miles from the Abbey at Gethsemani. And we think it works flavor miracles. Kentucky Bourbon features hints of spice and caramel that infuse our fruitcake with a bright-yet-balanced sweetness. When added to our fudge, it imparts a uniquely rich finish that leaves you craving more.

Kentucky Bourbon Butter Walnut Fudge

Our rich, buttery white chocolate and walnut fudge is kicked up a notch by adding fine Kentucky Bourbon to the recipe.
